

Adrienne Bemus
Teacher

Westergard has always held a special place in my heart both as a teacher and because it was my children's elementary school. In 2009, I joined the Washoe County School District after a 15-year career in public relations and have taught at Westergard ever since.

While I am originally from northern California, I earned my bachelor's degree in journalism from the University of Nevada, Reno, and completed my teacher certification from Sierra Nevada College. Prior to teaching, I managed communications and public relations for KOLO-TV, R&R Partners, and a variety of small businesses.

But none of that compares to the joy of teaching and watching my students grow and learn right before my eyes. They inspire me with their stories, their passion for learning, their determination, and their joy. When I am not teaching, I am spending time with my husband, our two children, our Basset Hound, or let's face it - at the grocery store, running errands, and hanging out with friends and family. But I also cherish the times when I am relaxing on a beach, spending time outdoors, hanging out in our backyard, or reading a great book.

Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions. Here's to a great school year!
