

Email Format Suggestion

Dear [Teacher's Name],

My student [student name] has been having a lot of trouble at home with getting her work done and her mental well-being. Do you have any resources that could help her? Please either call me at 123-4567 or respond back to this email with those resources.

Sincerely, [Your Name]

Open–Ended Questions

- What do you see as my child's strengths?
- What are some areas that you think my child might need extra support? (academic and social emotional)
- What resources are available in the school or community to provide extra support for my child?
- What are the most effective ways I can support my child's education outside of the school?

