SPECIFIC THEME:

Overcoming the odds requires discipline

POEM TITLE: "Hall of Fame"

What is the poem about? (one sentence)

You will find success if you believe in yourself, don't give up, & do what makes you happy.

Mood/Tone: Explain why you chose the color.

I chose the color yellow because of the uplifting tone in the song. Yellow also represents light and this song is about being a light for others.

POEM TITLE: "Eye of the Tiger"

What is the poem about? (one sentence)

It is about domination, but is more complex because it explains to stay true to yourself.

Mood/Tone: Explain why you chose the color.

I chose orange to represent the tiger that stalks his prey for victory, but also because the song "cautions" not to "trade your passion for glory."

SPECIFIC THEME:

Challenge brings strength

POEM TITLE: "It's not over yet"

What is the poem about? (one sentence)

Don't let your negativity get the best of you. Rise to the occasion.

Mood/Tone: Explain why you chose the color.

The green represents conflict. Yellow (action-like the sun rising) and blue (content- staying in one place) make green. The author talks about how the voices in our head conflict.

POEM TITLE: "Juicy"

What is the poem about? (one sentence)

Making something out of nothing and how others shouldn't limit you.

Mood/Tone: Explain why you chose the color.

I chose black because the author reflects how the negativity of others and negative choices he had to make fueled his motivation.
