

POETRY TERMS EXPLORATION DIRECTIONS

Getting Started:

Find four poems/songs that have a uniting theme (a reoccurring idea). Write the theme in the middle ball on your Poetry Exploration page. Examine your four poems/songs and find examples of where the poetry terms exist in these poems/songs. Once you have completed this, continue to find your poems/songs and double check through the expectations list.

Expectations:

☐

Find an example for each of the poetry terms- (don't use the same poem/song twice)

☐

Include the poem/song name and the name of the poet/artist on each poetry term Make a works cited page where you include MLA citation.

☐

Write a quote from the poem/song that illustrates the poetry term used

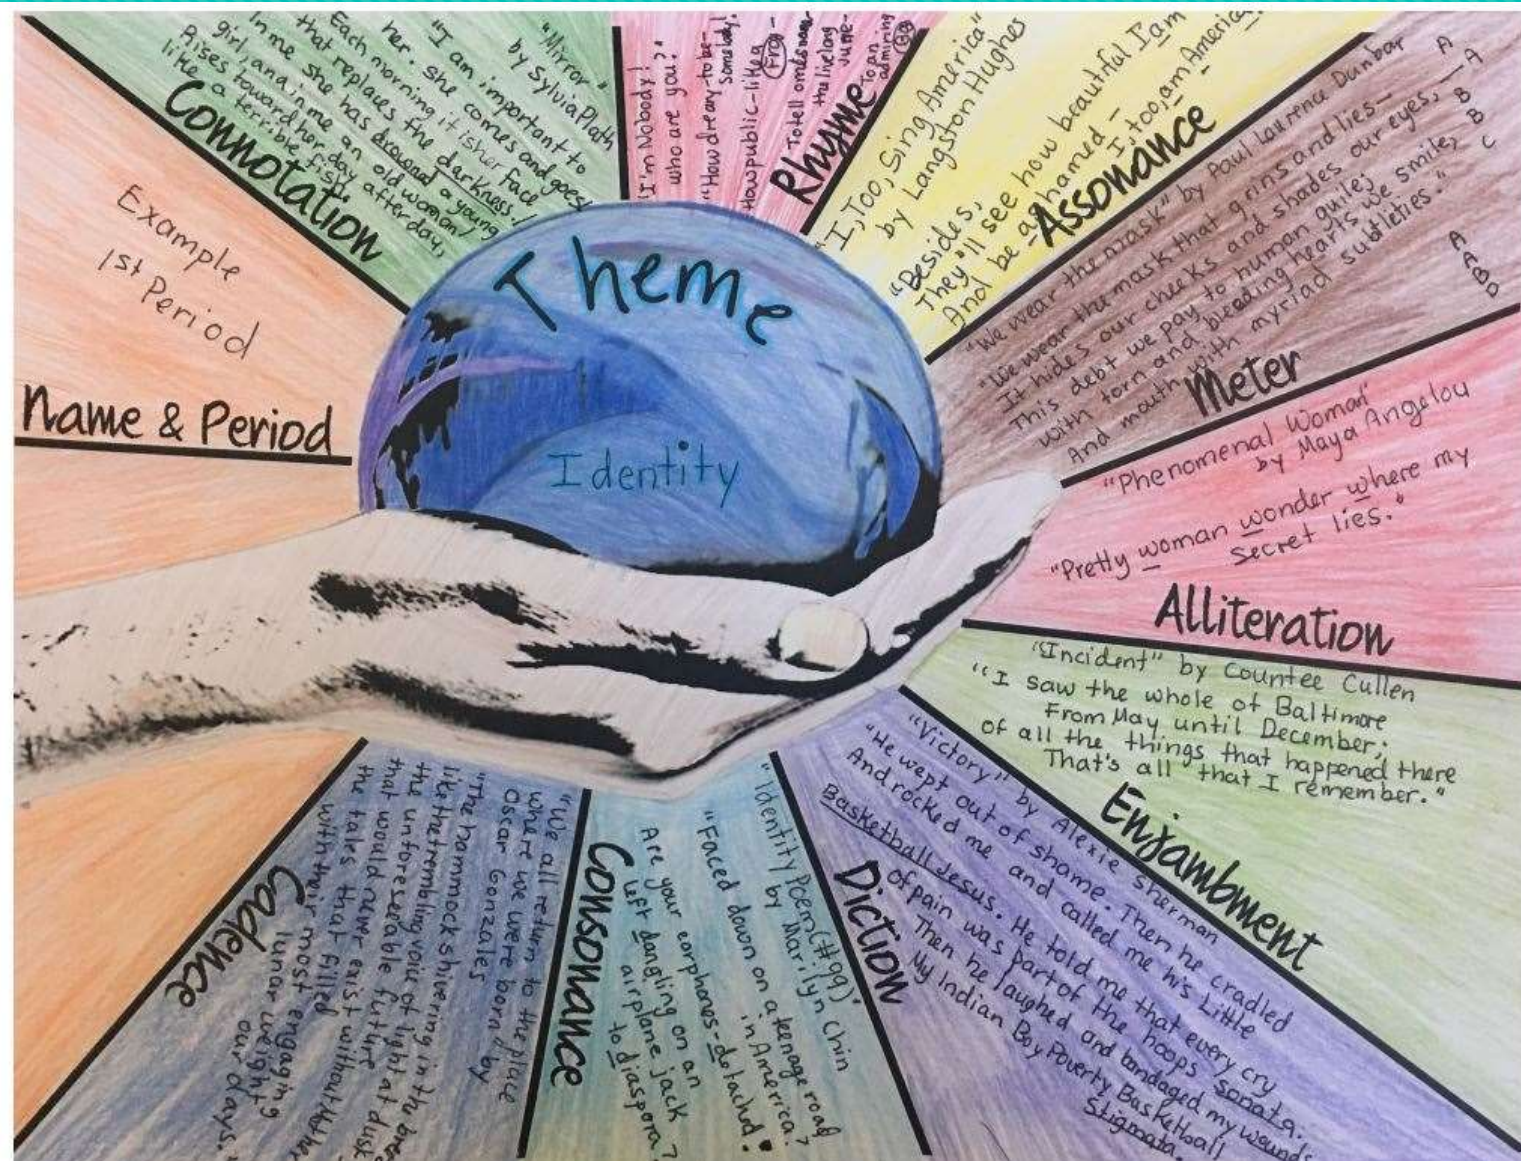

☐

Color each poetry terms ray a color that represents the mood/tone of the poem/song

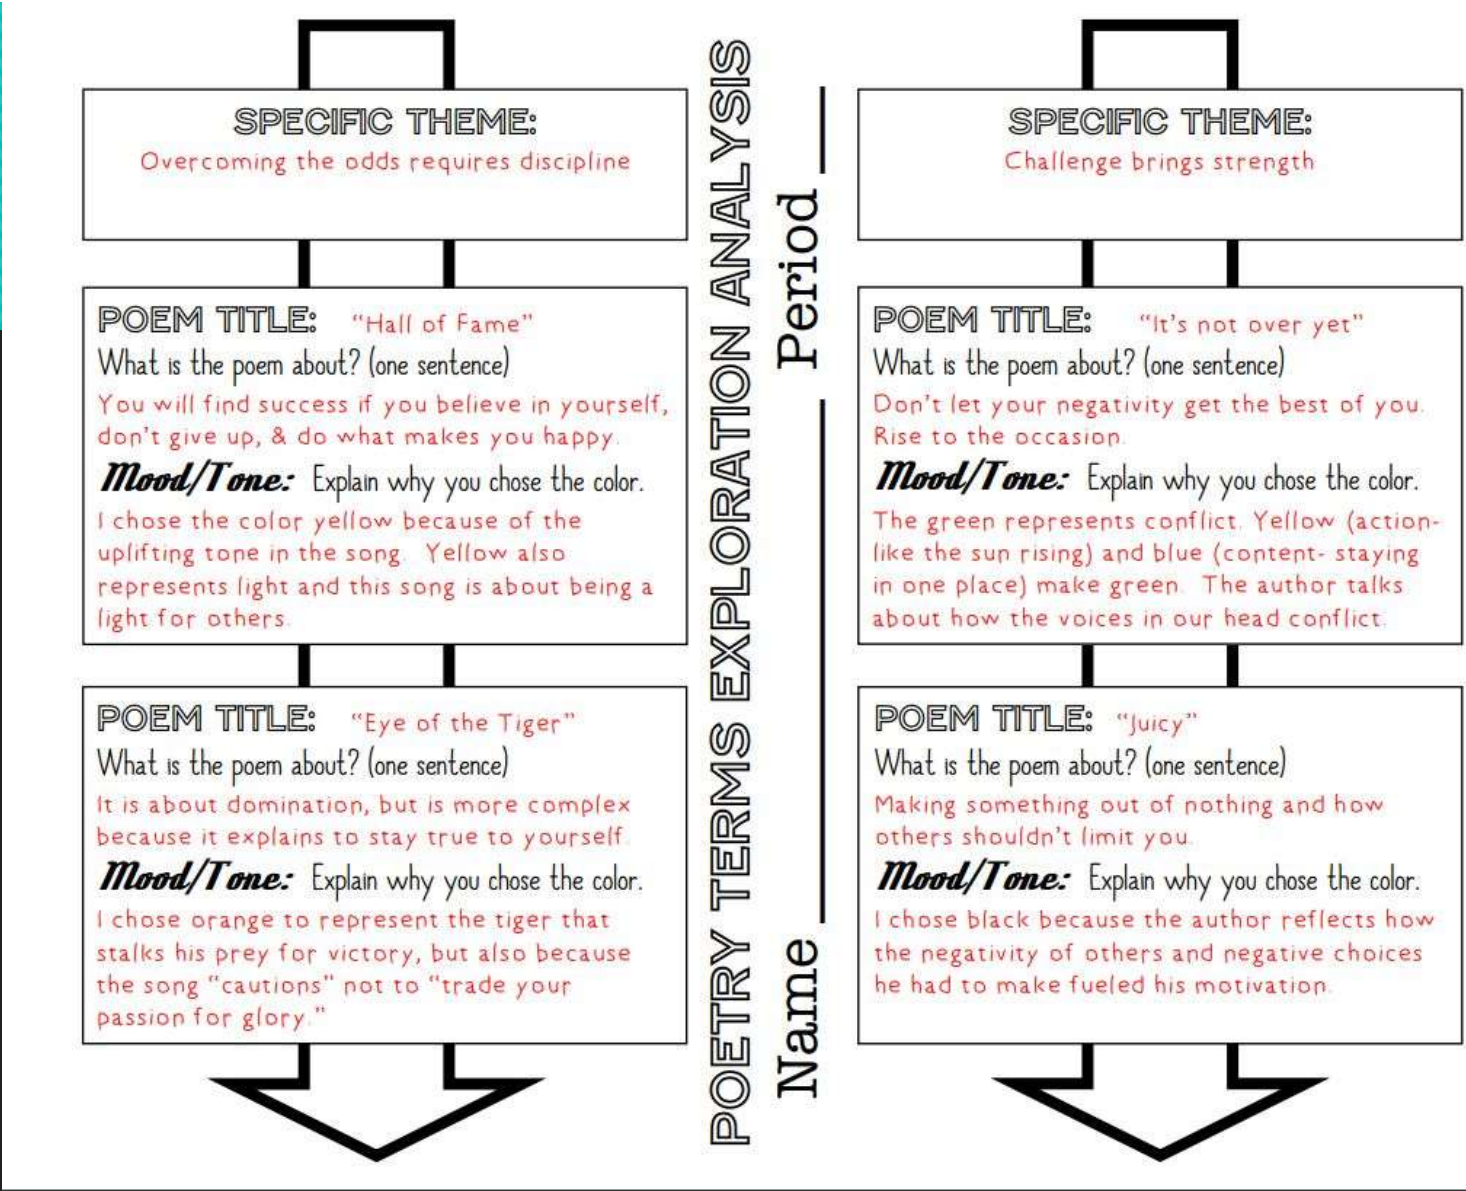

☐

Complete the "Poetry Terms Exploration Analysis" page

Example

Example

THEME STARTERS: Fill in the blanks to make your theme more specific

During a literary analysis, your argument will be more valid and convincing depending on how specific your theme is. Take your one-word theme and create a phrase or sentence that isolates the most crucial ideas in your theme. If you are struggling, combine two themes to fill in the blanks from the theme starters.

For example: 1-word theme: Love, acceptance Phrase: Love cannot exist without acceptance _____ through _____ _____ brings _____ _____ versus _____ _____ triumphs over _____ _____ cannot exist without _____ _____ between _____ leads to _____ Too much _____ is _____ _____ with _____ _____ (add a verb) when _____ _____ is only _____ _____ can be _____

_____ is worth _____ We _____ trying to _____
_____ of _____

_____ creates _____ _____ conquers _____ _____ can result in _____ _____ is _____ _____ is a challenge to _____ Don't _____ over _____